A View of Hope

Birthing A Universe

What if you knew that in this moment you have the potential to birth a universe? Your body may be calling out for an epidural right about now! Imagine that long ago, humanity volunteered to take the vibration of love and amp it up many times over in order to birth a new paradigm.

You be may be wondering: where do we find the time and how do we create this universe? It's easy to find the time to do it because it is really our only full time job. And how we do it is simple, to the extent that our awareness is tuned into a connection with divinity and the oneness of love.

How we do it is tied into the properties of enlighthment on earth. If you look at the core truth of the world's main religions, before they were infused with fear-based dogma, what is always taught is love, and choosing love over all else.

Along with the truth of love is the concept of duality, because having to choose love infers that there is something other than love that we could choose. So, two concepts at the core of enlighthment are love and duality.
Both are big clues as to the path of enlighthment on Earth and how we are birthing this new paradigm of love.

If the belief that you are participating in the birth of a universal paradigm is far-fetched, that's okay. It's the process that is important, which has to do with the core of our spiritual process, love and duality. Earth is a planet of choice, where we each get to choose, from moment to moment, how to perceive everything.

This or that? That or this? Our attention and awareness dance from option to option. How do we choose? It depends on how much we have deepened into our hearts and forgiven. Forgiveness is the gauge by which we are able to measure our ability to choose the answer that brings us closer to love.

We are amazing, powerful beings who chose to reincarnate over and over just so we could have the opportunity to make loving decisions over and over, sometimes in the most difficult circumstances. We are creating an entirely new vibration of love in the process, which surpasses any that have preceded it.

What makes it new and so potent is the challenge of seeing past our attachments and fears to the truth, and allowing ourselves to trust and have faith over and over in love. We each have free will to choose. We have the power to change the picture of whatever we are looking at back to love, and this makes us constant creators.

Forgiveness is a huge energy generator of this birthing process. Forgiveness releases the karma—the cause and effect energy that keeps us in cycles of “us against them”. The Way of Mastery says:

Words to Grow by Celebrate Being You!

The holidays are here and with them can come a few challenges! Many people feel free to be themselves more with friends than with family. Isn't that interesting? What is the silent, invisible code that says we have to be one way with our family—namely the way it was when we were growing up? The guilt can be overwhelming when you try to break free from the way the family views you and be yourself.

Do you still have to 'kow tow' to family demands? Or, have you found space to be who you are no matter whom you are around? If it is challenging for you, let's look at some simple ways of holding your space and enjoying your family.

First of all, try to be in the moment. Instead of worrying about what might happen, stay present with what is unfolding around you. Keep your attention in your body and keep checking in with yourself. If you feel overwhelmed then give yourself permission to stop. You may need to take a walk or a nap to get a little alone time and regroup.

Pick some of your favorite ways of enjoying your family. Do you like cooking with them, going for long walks or doing holiday decorating? Seek time with family members who would enjoy doing an activity with you. The best part of being in a large group is there is room for each person to do some of the things they like best, while other members gravitate towards other activities.

Many people have changed their eating habits over the years. Instead of making a big deal out of your diet change, just eat the foods that feel right to you. It is easy to leave out meat or stuffing and not have it be a big deal. If it is met with, "But you used to love stuffing!" simply reply that your family's stuffing is one of your fondest memories but over the years, you discovered you and gluten don't get a long so well.

“Forgiveness is forgiveness of one’s self for insisting on replacing Reality with your own version of it.”

Forgiveness brings a moment back to neutrality so that we can get to the only changeless awareness, which is love. It is so simple. There is nothing to forgive in another. Forgive anything in the moment you are experiencing that doesn’t lead you to peace. The energy produced as a result of your forgiveness feeds the energy of unprecedented love that you are creating. This is how you are creating our new world, and you are doing it with every breath, every thought.

So welcome challenges into your life that allow you to change the picture back to love. See with your heart. It is what you are a master of right now. You are a universe-maker and your building material is love. The engine that fuels the love is forgiveness. Enjoy your only true full-time job! Seek ways to forgive, more and more deeply every day, so that this new universe is birthed from a peace that passeth all understanding.

This is what the gift of time is for in these three-dimensional bodies. We’ve all tried to take up time getting what we think we need from outside of us—more money, a better body, more food, cars, the perfect home or relationship and it’s never enough!

Take a deep breath. Know that every time you chose love a new energy of love is created. Imagine your every moment being dedicated to the desire to be a witness to how forgiving you are. Forgiveness is not condoning, it is the release of all judgment. In your daily dance of life, what you are going to allow to lead? The love or the fear?

I would like to end this with the Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi. It is one of my favorite ways to set my space each day, for a fresh start at birthing love like it’s never been known before!

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love. Where there is injury, pardon. Where there is doubt, faith. Where there is despair, hope. Where there is darkness, light and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, To be understood as to understand, To be loved as to love; For it is in giving that we receive, It is in pardoning that we are pardoned; And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

You don’t need an epidural. Let go of the lie that anything is other than love, and the visions birthed from the lie of fear dissolve. Have a blessed holiday, and may you feel loved and supported on your path. Join us in the New Year and learn more about how you are a master being, birthing a new paradigm!♥

Taught by Hope Hewetson

Validate the past while staying true to the present changes your body has been making.

Family time together generates more chores for everyone, especially the person hosting the dinners. Volunteer for the chores that work best for you. Washing dishes can be fun and relaxing, taking you out of the hustle and bustle for a short while. Dishes done with a sibling gives lots of time for short one-on-one conversations which may be harder to have while in the midst of a large group.

If some of the old traditions in the family aren't working for you, try doing something different this year. Volunteer in a soup kitchen, sing songs in a retirement home, go ice-skating, go to a football game or make ornaments together. Try to discover something new about each person in your family. We all get into seeing our family from old eyes, when in fact each of us is changing all the time. How can you validate what you have discovered about your family? Can you find all the things you are grateful for learning from them?

Does your family know how you feel about them? It is so simple to end a conversation with I love you. It is easy to say, I love you even if I don't share the same views you have. I love you even if we don't eat the same foods, pray in the same church or dress the same. Once you get past the physical differences, we are all the same within. We all want to be loved, held in honor and have permission to live our life the way it feels right to us. This year celebrate your family, no matter what the differences are. Celebrate the world and all the opportunities we have to learn from each other. This year, celebrate love. In the end, it is all we are. Namaste♥

Creed of the Church of Inner Light

Psychic Horizons Center is a spiritual sanctuary where you can discover your own truths and obtain your spiritual freedom this lifetime. "What if a man gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" asks Jesus. To a mystic with eyes turned inward to infinity and cosmic consciousness, his words have great meaning. Obtaining a one-to-one contact between the cosmic and a living soul, which flames quietly, brings a lifetime of contentment and the realization that nothing in this world is worth exchanging for that attainment.
